Let's get to the racing.

As you are probably all are aware we have a bunch of racers who are in the "Sub Two Club". This is for those who have gone under two minutes at this hill. This year, we added 3 new members. Charles Cope in DS with a 1:59.437, Nathan Korstad, with a 1:56.552 and Tony Chilton with a 1:54.884. Congratulations!

Our King this year with a time of 1:49.161 was Sonny Smith. He becomes the first driver of a "door slammer" to break the 1:50 barrier. That left the "door slammer" award to Matt Dow in the screaming yellow Rabbit, who had a 1:54.417. This was even more remarkable considering that he had to be towed off the hill on Saturday with the right front suspension in shambles. The Queen this year was Peggy Steck with a 1:25.971.

We had six new class records, congratulations to Charles Cope, Sonny Smith, Matt Dow, Marie Sherman, Jon Tranberg and Peggy Steck.

It was not a great year for a very select few. Tim Thoming's Rabbit is now a parts car after hitting the ditch and rolling a couple of times. Tim was fine, except for the large hole in the pocketbook. He won the coveted Stuff Occurs Award!! Ben Straughan did some major bending to his pretty Rabbit on his last run. I already mentioned Matt Dow in his Rabbit. It now has some great battle scars. Oh and not to forget Robert Fisher who was another driver who needed Chris's tow truck. But he was able to drive it away.

Bonnie and I want to thank our sons for providing us our rides again this year. Thanks Lorin and Sean.

I know I'll never be able to remember all who helped this year, so I'm not really even going to try. But I do want to thank Karen and Ray and "Rosie". It wouldn't be Larison without you.
