Old Business

Venue Update

Lorin Wamsley provided the following updates:

- Creswell mill site is still not available at this point. It is in the process of being sold.
- Willamette Pass is ready for us and once again the lodge will not be open.
- Valley River Center dates were approved, and paperwork is done. Lithia Dodge is still parking some of their overflow vehicles near our pit area, but we should have more room than last year.

501C3 Foundation Update

In Licia Shultz absence no report was given, however a reminder the next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, June 19th 6:00 pm at Bert Jacobson's home.

Event 1 and 2 Recap

Bert Jacobson reported it was a great event and people liked it. There were a lot of cones hit. The new class brought a lot of new people. There were 85 people in attendance. Bert mentioned that Cindy Lee was not able to bring her food cart to Roseburg. Her daughter brought her own cart and he will check to see if she can do the same at Willamette Pass.

Event 3 and 4 Planning

There was some confusion on who was designing the courses. Tim and Peggy Steck volunteered to design the courses. Setup will be at 6:00 pm. Hope Mueller mentioned that Terraceta Toxic Wings, one of the food vendors at VRC food court, now has a cart and will check with VRC management to see if they will allow the cart to be set up at our event.

Larison Update

Mike Glass reported clean up being done for storm damage and is clear to about station 3. Forest Service has a sweeper. He is trying to get a hold of them for schedule. He has 1 500.00 sponsorship and is working on a couple of more. The next meeting is scheduled for Saturday, May 18th 2:00 pm at the Goshen Fire Hall. There are 31 entry's so far. Bert Jacobson has ordered potties.

TSD Rally

Simon Levear reported the May 4th TSD rally starts at the Sizzler in Springfield. The first car out will be directly after the rally school around 2:00 pm and will finish at the Round Table Pizza in Springfield. There are 4 cars registered so far.

New Business

Kim Olerich

Bert Jacobson announced Kim Olerich passed away. She and her husband Chad were long time autocross racers.

EMS Clean Up

Lorin Wamsley reminded everyone of the scheduled clean up Wednesday, May 8th at 5:00 pm at Equipment Mobile Services (where we store our trailers) 29522 Airport Rd. Please come help.

Function 4 Junction Fund Raiser

Jim Foster announced that Function 4 Junction is having a fund raiser event on Wednesday, May 8th. BJ's will be donating a portion of all meals sold on May 8th. You must mention Function 4 Junction when ordering. He invited us to attend the next meeting Thursday, May 2nd at Les Schwab in JC. He wondered if we would be interested in having a booth and what could they do to accommodate our needs. This was taken under advisement. The Function for Junction is Friday, May 31st and the Show and Shine and Classic Car Cruise is Saturday, June 1st.

Rally Workers

Simon Levear is looking for check point workers for a rally he is putting on for June 29th and 30th. You can volunteer to work or run.

Newsletter Release

Jim Mueller will prepare the May newsletter. Include the TSD results.

Newsletter Assignments

Nick Kerbs was volunteered to write the June Newsletter article.

Adjourn Meeting

The meeting was adjourned at 7:55 pm

Respectfully Submitted,
Bren Wamsley
